Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God,
 comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken,
 you have fed us at the table of life and hope:
 teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Please turn off mobile phones before the service starts. We have a hearing loop installed. Please adjust your hearing aid accordingly.

Collect

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
 increase and multiply upon us your mercy;
 that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we finally lose not the things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever. Amen

Looking Forward –

Next Sunday it is our turn to take responsibility for the service at St George's in Troodos. Geoff and I hope that we shall have the basis of a congregation from St Helena's for the service that begins at 4pm. We are running a minibus to take people up to the cool of the mountains, leaving the church after morning service. There is still room for a couple more people. I know it goes without saying, but please don't put your name down unless you definitely intend to come, and will be happy to pay if you have to pull out at the last moment.

Last week you may have heard an organisation called Caritas mentioned in the prayers. Caritas is an international Catholic based social outreach organisation that has recently opened an office in Larnaca. They will be partners with us in the help we are able to offer, as a Christian community generally, to refugees and other migrants in our area. In the first instance they are hoping to start English language lessons, and to organise a summer art school for children. It is hoped that both these initiatives will be based in our Upper Room.

If you are a visitor or pilgrim to Cyprus, and would like to maintain a link with us, please do fill in one of our welcome forms, available from the welcomers.

We will send you an end of year newsletter by e mail, and keep you in touch with our events and prayers.

Ven Dr John Holdsworth, Parish Priest
