Post Communion Prayer

Holy Father,
 who gathered us here around the table of your Son
 to share this meal with the whole household of God:
 In that new world where you reveal the fullness of
 your peace,
 gather people of every race and language
 to share in the eternal banquet
 of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

St Helena's Anglican Church

Welcome to St Helena's in the name of Christ.

*If you are a baptised
 Christian of any tradition, you are invited to receive Communion.*

*We will be having coffee in the courtyard
 after the service,
 please join us.*

29th July, 2018

Collect

Almighty God,
 who sent your Holy Spirit
 to be the life and light of your Church:
 Open our hearts to the riches of his grace,
 that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit
 in love and joy and peace;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Please turn off mobile phones before the service starts. We have a hearing loop installed. Please adjust your hearing aid accordingly.

Looking Forward –

John is in Exeter in the UK this week at the biennial tri-Diocese get-together with representatives of our link Dioceses of Exeter and Thika in Kenya. These are always interesting meetings to get snapshots of different aspects of Christianity from different parts of the world. We look forward to hearing about it when John returns. John and Sue then immediately begin their annual summer holiday in the UK so, for the next three weeks, I will both celebrate and preach at Sunday Eucharist. This Sunday we welcome the Jackson family as six-year-old Charlie Jackson is baptised into the Christian community. He's still too young to really grasp what it means to become a lifelong member of the worldwide Christian faith but we hope that he will come to realise the significance as he grows older. We had our monthly Quiet Service on Thursday (dates for the diary: it's always held on the last Thursday of the month at 11am!). These services give us a short break from our constantly busy lives, with time to spend with God in silent or open prayer and reflection. They have become popular with those who attend but all are welcome. August is traditionally a quiet period in St Helena's when many of our congregation head off to the UK. Notwithstanding, we will still be here at St Helena's throughout August and will welcome all who attend Church, whether known to us or visitors.

Fr Geoff Graham, Associate Priest

Pray for the Diocesan Director of Ordinands, Archdeacon John, as he with others promotes a culture of learning, vocation and discernment in the diocese.

We also pray for the parish of Paphos: The Parish has three places of worship: The church of Ayia Kyriaki Chrysopolitissa, Paphos; the Church of St Stephen in Tala and the Church of St Luke in Prodromi which serves the town of Polis, the resort of Latchi and surrounding villages.

If you still have a 'Pilgrim' handbook, could you please return it to Geoff. Thank you.

This morning's readings: 2 Samuel 11. 1-15

Ephesians 3. 14-21 John 6. 1-21

Next week's readings: 2 Samuel 11.26 – 12.13a

Ephesians 4. 1-16 John 6. 24-35
